Fact or CRAAP?

Currency: The timeliness of the information
⇒ When was the information published?
⇒ Has the information been revised or updated?
⇒ Does your topic require recent or contemporary sources?

Relevance: The importance of the information to your topic.
⇒ Does the information directly answer your research question?
⇒ Who is the article written for?
⇒ Would you be comfortable citing this source in a paper?
⇒ Have you looked at other sources before choosing this one?

Authority: The source of information
⇒ Who is the author/publisher/editor/source?
⇒ What are the authors credentials and qualifications, are they given?
⇒ Is contact information provided for the author or source?

Accuracy: The reliability and correctness of the content.
⇒ Where does the information come from?
⇒ Is the information supported by evidence?
⇒ Has the information been peer-reviewed?
⇒ Can the information be verified?

Purpose: the reason the information exists.
⇒ What is the purpose of the information?
⇒ Do the authors make their intentions clear?
⇒ Who was the study commissioned by?
⇒ Do the authors seem biased?